STATEMENT

To whom it may concern,

As is well known, between the end of October 2017 and January 2018, EN ISO 17034:2017 General requirements for the competence of reference material producers' (implementing ISO 17034:2016) and EN ISO/IEC 17025:2017 'General requirements for the competence of testing and calibration laboratories' came into force.

Among others, an objective of these standards is to ensure a high level of reliability of the metrological traceability of conformity assessment bodies such as testing and calibration laboratories. EN ISO/IEC 17025:2018 and EURACHEM regulations prescribe the suitability criteria for the use of samples and reference materials in order to ensure metrological traceability.

Mecconti S.A.R.L. Sp. z o.o., with regard to the production of reference materials for the validation of analysis methods, has complied with the indications of the ISO GUIDE 34:2009 guideline "General requirements for the competence of reference material producers" and the provisions of the international standard ISO 17034:2016 " General requirements for the competence of reference material producers";
